Randy Blair again. This will be my last attempt to reconcile this. I will not communicate under "moderated" status.

Mr. Blair

You were moderated because you insisted upon violating individual privacy, violation of Rule 3 and condemned in this movement as a matter of policy:

3. I will respect individual privacy and online privacy protections and not reveal personal identifying information about anyone but myself.

POLL QUESTION: On the issue of online privacy and personal identifying information:

A person holding himself or herself out to be a family rights advocate or activist publishes personal identifying information of another advocate or activist on the Internet.

This publication was without the knowledge or consent of the individual named. This publication was done in spite of the of the fact that the owner of the personal identifying information took steps to insure his/her Internet privacy and anonymity.

What is your position on this publication of another advocate/activist's personal identifying information?

CHOICES AND RESULTS

- I support this action., 1 votes, 9.09%
- I agree to disagree on this issue., 0 votes, 0.00%
- I condemn this action., 10 votes, 90.91%

For being being disrepectful and violating group rules, such as Rule 2

2. I will conduct myself professionally and treat all members with respect and courtesy.

When you unsubbed, you were moderated. IF you resub - it will be at the same status and for the same reasons that existed when you left. I suggest you review Rule 6,

6. I agree that all members enter this group on the same footing, and share the same presumption of credibility. What I do with that status after joining is my sole responsibility.

Your membership will be approved - and you will be moderated. Do with it what you will. I suggest you start out with a sincere apology to anyone you offended.

Suzanne
